Expert angler and hunter will share the best fishing strategies and tackle for our area

MILLSBORO, DE – March 11, 2025 – Eric Burnley, local author and outdoorsman, will present the best places to fish at the Millsboro Public Library from 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. on Sat., Mar. 22, 2025.

Burnley is a Delaware native who has fished and hunted since an early age. Since 1978, he has written countless articles about hunting and fishing in Delaware and elsewhere along the Atlantic Coast. He has been the regional editor for several publications and was the founding editor of the Mid-Atlantic Fisherman magazine. Eric is the author of three books: Surf Fishing the Atlantic Coast, The Ultimate Guide to Striped Bass Fishing and Fishing Saltwater Baits.

“We have an overabundance of opportunities with our proximity to the ocean, yet it is important to remember that Delaware has more than 30 freshwater lakes and ponds in which to cast lines,” said Assistant Director Anthony Connolly. “With so many new and experienced anglers living in the area, Eric is sure to have tips for every person who attends,” he said.
